

Date: December 12, 2005
Contact: Bob Meidinger, 896-5247

Crews from the Bureau of Land Management Billings Field Office plan to burn slash piles in the Horsethief Creek area west of Roundup on Wednesday or Thursday this week so smoke may be visible in the area. The burning will only take place if fresh snow is received beforehand. The slash is a by-product of an ongoing fuel reduction project in the Horsethief area.

For more information, contact the Billings Field Office at 896-5013.

###